

Knowsley Libraries Big Lock In

Hi All

While we're all still having to adjust and stay safe at this worrying time, we thought we'd bring you another issue of Knowsley Libraries Big Lock In. Lots of us are missing our family, friends and especially going out to our favourite places like the Library ☺ We decided that we'd put together this little newsletter with lots of bits and bobs in such as recipes, book recommendations, and we've even included a quiz to help ease the boredom.

So, a little bit of homework for you while you're unable to go out and about. I was wondering if you'd share with us 'What You're Reading in Lockdown', or your favourite book/author that you'd like to recommend to others.

I've asked friends, family and colleagues to share with us what they're reading and it's quite a mix!

What are people reading?

The Drowned Village

By Kathleen McGurl

A Village destroyed

It's the summer of 1935 and eleven-year-old Stella Walker is preparing to leave her home forever. Forced to evacuate to make way for a new reservoir, the village of Brackendale Green will soon be lost. But before the water has even reached them, a dreadful event threatens to tear Stella's family apart.

An uncovered secret

Present day, and a fierce summer has dried up the lake and revealed the remnants of the deserted village. Now an old woman, Stella begs her granddaughter Laura to make the journey she can't. She's sure the village still holds answers for her but, with only days until the floodwaters start to rise again, Laura is in a race against time to solve the mysteries of Stella's almost forgotten past

The Drowned Village reaches across the decades in an unforgettable tale of love, loss and family

The Stranger Diaries

By Elly Griffiths

Clare Cassidy is no stranger to murder. As a literature teacher specialising in the gothic writer RM Holland, she teaches a short course on it every year.

Then Clare's life and work collide tragically when one of her colleagues is found dead, a line from an RM Holland story by her body. The investigating police detective is convinced the writer's works somehow hold the key to the case. Not knowing who to trust, and afraid that the killer is someone she knows, Clare confides her darkest suspicions and fears about the case to her journal.

Then one day she notices some other writing in the diary - writing that isn't hers.

Instructions:

Cut each onion into eight wedges. Roughly chop the carrots and cut the potatoes into large chunks. Put the kettle on.

Films of the Week:

Monday: The Bourne Supremacy 9pm ITV4

There are surprises galore in this inventing sequel to the 2002 film. Matt Damon returns as the amnesiac Bourne, with Julia Stiles as an agent who knows secrets about his past.

Tuesday: A Fistful Of Dollars 9pm 5Star

This is the spaghetti western that helped to define Clint Eastwood's career. His debut with Italian director Sergio Leone, it is the first of a gritty trilogy, in which Eastwood's poncho-wearing 'man with no name' comes between feuding families.

Wednesday: Fish Tank 11pm BBC4

Andrea Arnold's skilful second feature film stars Katie Jarvis as the 15-year-old girl who grows up too quickly. Jarvis' standout performance is matched by that of Kierston Wareing as her worn-out-mother, and Michael Fassbender as her mother's new boyfriend.

Thursday: Under Suspicion 10pm Talking Pictures TV

Set in Brighton, this noirish mystery stars a pre-action man Liam Neeson as a disgraced cop turned immoral private eye. When one of his dirty jobs goes horribly wrong, he is suddenly in the frame for murder and, unwisely, gets in deep with another suspect.

Friday: Watchmen 9pm 5Star

Superheroes of the tougher, grubbier variety feature in this DC Comics tale. Fallen on hard times, they regroup when one of them is killed.

Idiot Prayer: Nick Cave Alone at Alexandra Palace recommended by Joe

Nick Cave performed 22 career spanning songs alone in a deserted concert hall, reworking them into haunted piano sermons that glow with unnerving intimacy.

CRAFT TIME

This is a Christmas craft that I have seen on the internet and I wanted to share with you.

Christmas Bunting by Jane

Time: 30 minutes

Age: Any age

Level: Easy

Materials

Ribbon

Cardboard

Decoration items - we used crayons, felt pens, glitter and glue, sequins, sticky stars

Hole punch

Scissors

Method

Cut out some outlines for your bunting items. We chose to make Christmas trees, Christmas puddings and shiny stars. Try using a festive cookie cutter as a template to draw round (we did this for the stars).

Decorate the individual items. We had fun decorating one of the Christmas trees with 'tinsel' by squeezing lines of white glue across the tree then shaking glitter on top.

When dry, make a hole in the top of each individual item with a hole punch.

Thread ribbon through and space out the individual items to finish your bunting.

I've added pictures below for you to follow
