

Knowsley Libraries Big Lock In

Hi All

While we're all still having to adjust and stay safe at this worrying time, we thought we'd bring you another issue of Knowsley Libraries Big Lock In. Lots of us are missing our family, friends and especially going out to our favourite places like the Library ☺ We decided that we'd put together this little newsletter with lots of bits and bobs in such as recipes, book recommendations, and we've even included a quiz to help ease the boredom.

So, a little bit of homework for you while you're unable to go out and about. I was wondering if you'd share with us 'What You're Reading in Lockdown', or your favourite book/author that you'd like to recommend to others.

I've asked friends, family and colleagues to share with us what they're reading and it's quite a mix!

If Every Day Was Christmas

By Donna Ashcroft

Will it be a Magical Christmas in Lockton this year?

Meg Scott runs a year-round Christmas shop in the little Scottish village and is a fan of all things sparkly and festive. When her warring family shows up on her doorstep, Meg is determined not to let them ruin her favourite time of the year.

Meanwhile, Christmas-hating Tom Riley-Clark has been called to the Highlands to help his old friend at The Apple Cross Inn. He's ready to work hard and has no time for mince pies, tinsel and the thought of every day being Christmas is his worst nightmare.

So everyone is surprised when Christmas-loving Meg and grinch Tom start to get cosy under the mistletoe.

But Tom has a big secret about his past, and in a small town like Lockton it's hard to keep anything hidden for long. Will everything fall apart when Meg discovers who he really is? The pair are about to learn the hard way that some promises are impossible to keep...

TIME OUT OF JOINT

BY Philip K. Dick

Philip Dick's writings explore disturbed experiences of reality and may be familiar to readers from the films "Blade Runner", "Minority Report" and "Total Recall".

Unfortunately, film could not convey the protagonist's unease, in the above, as he slowly discovers his life in a small American town, in 1959, is a sham.

Despite being a professional quiz enterer, who has an uncanny knack of winning his local newspaper's daily prize competition every day, he only gradually begins to realise, with the help of his family, that things are odd and decides to see if he can break out of the façade of the town.

His initial attempt to escape is foiled by a conspiracy of planted 'locals' but eventually he succeeds. What lies beyond the town's hinterland?

Dick's Sci-Fi was somewhat out of kilter with the times and the ending is a little unconvincing but was apparently tagged on to give the book a more general appeal.

But, true to Dick, the "hero", as he discovers that it isn't actually 1959, finds the truth comes at a crushing personal cost.

Like "Tv's The Prisoner", the theme of escape from an artificially conceived reality is a common one in film and fiction, but Dick's view point is unique and the "will he, won't he?" escape from the traps and decoys of the mysterious outsiders, provides genuine tension. The book will appeal to those that like a good conspiracy mystery and the ultimate one of course –is there something beyond our reality?

Mayflies

By Andrew O'Hagan

Everyone has a Tully Dawson: the friend who defines your life.

In the summer of 1986, in a small Scottish town, James and Tully ignite a brilliant friendship based on music, films and the rebel spirit. With school over and the locked world of their fathers before them, they rush towards the climax of their youth: a magical weekend in Manchester, the epicentre of everything that inspires them in working-class Britain. There, against the greatest soundtrack ever recorded, a vow is made: to go at life differently. Thirty years on, half a life away, the phone rings. Tully has news.

The Witch Hunter

By Max Seeck

Detective Jessica Niemi is called to investigate a murder case which is completely out of the ordinary. The wife of a famous writer, Roger Koponen, appears to have been killed in a bizarre ritual. As more ritual murders occur in the coming days, it becomes obvious that Jessica is after a serial killer. But the murders are not random - they follow a pattern taken from Roger's bestselling trilogy. Has a devoted fan lost their mind, or is this case more personal?

Murder Thy Neighbour

By James Patterson

These two true-crime thrillers follow a neighbour's quarrel that turns violent and cyber-bullying that explodes into a double murder

Ann Hoover is a nice woman but she hates her neighbour. Ten months ago, Roy Kirk moved in next door and now his house is in a great state of disrepair and Kirk himself has turned sullen and hostile. When Ann sues him, Kirk will retaliate in a gruesome, horrific manner.

Jenelle Potter has always been better with connecting with people through social media. With overprotective parents, she hasn't had very many options to meet people, until she meets Billy. But her feelings for Billy are unreciprocated, causing Jenelle to start a virtual war, until that war enters the real world.

Recipe:

I'd like to share some easy to follow and lovely to eat recipes from family, friends, colleagues and some that I've come across.

This one has been tried and tested by Lee from our Digital Team.

Minestrone Soup

Ingredients

2 tbsp oil (olive, sunflower or vegetable)
1 onion, finely chopped
1–2 sticks celery, trimmed and thinly sliced (optional)
400g/14oz tin chopped tomatoes
3 vegetable oxo cube
1 tsp dried oregano
roughly three mugs of assorted vegetables (could include raw or cooked vegetables, such as carrots, celery, courgette, leek, peas or cabbage, peeled and cut into small chunks)
400g/14oz tin borlotti or cannellini beans, drained and rinsed
1 mug cooked pasta or rice
Parmesan, or other cheese, grated
salt and freshly ground black pepper

Method:

- Pour the oil into a large non-stick saucepan or flameproof casserole.
- Add the onion and celery, if using, and fry gently for 5 minutes, or until softened and lightly browned, stirring often.
- Add the chopped tomatoes and refill the tomatoes tin 2 or 3 with cold water and pour into the pan.
- Add the vegetable stock cubes. Add the dried oregano. Add any hard, raw vegetable pieces, such as carrot, parsnip, squash or potato and bring to a simmer. Cook for 5 minutes, stirring occasionally.
- When the harder vegetables have softened, add the raw green vegetables, such as small broccoli florets, shredded kale or cabbage, green beans and courgette.
- Simmer for 3 minutes more, stirring occasionally.
- Add any cooked vegetables or beans you are adding with the cooked pasta or rice.
- Simmer until the pasta is cooked stirring occasionally.
- Season with salt and lots of freshly ground black pepper.
- Ladle into deep bowls and serve topped with grated cheese.

Films of the Week:

Monday: Armageddon 10pm Channel 5

When an asteroid threatens to collide with Earth, NASA honcho Dan Truman determines the only way to stop it is to drill into its surface and detonate a nuclear bomb. This leads him to renowned driller Harry Stamper who agrees to helm the dangerous space mission provided he can bring along his own hotshot crew.

Tuesday: The Green Mile 10.30pm Channel 5

Paul Edgecomb walked the mile with a variety of cons. He had never encountered someone like John Coffey a massive black man convicted of brutally killing a pair of young sisters. Coffey had the size and strength to kill anyone, but not the demeanor. Beyond his simple, naive nature and a deathly fear of the dark, Coffey seemed to possess a prodigious, supernatural gift. Paul began to question whether Coffey was truly guilty of murdering the two girls.

Wednesday: Hot Fuzz 10pm ITV4

Hotshot police officer Nicholas Angel smells foul play when the residents of a sleepy Somerset village start to die in terrible 'accidents'. Something's afoot, but can he and daft local plod Danny Butterman find out what?

Thursday: Brooklyn 8pm BBC4

Young Irish immigrant Eilis Lacey navigates her way through 1950s Brooklyn. Lured by the promise of America, Eilis departs Ireland and the comfort of her mother's home for the shores of New York City. The initial shackles of homesickness quickly diminish as a fresh romance sweeps Eilis into the intoxicating charm of love. But soon, her past disrupts her new vivacity, and Eilis must choose between two countries and the lives that exist within.

Friday: Hell or High Water 9pm Film4

Toby is a divorced father who's trying to make a better life for his son. His brother Tanner is an ex-convict with a short temper and a loose trigger finger. Together, they plan a series of heists against the bank that's about to foreclose on their family ranch. Standing in their way is Marcus, a Texas Ranger who's only weeks away from retirement.

CLOTHES PEG SNOWMAN

What you'll need

- Wooden clothes pegs
- Wool - various colours
- Glue
- Mini pop poms
- White paint
- Paint brush
- Black marker
- Scissors

To Make

- ❖ Paint the clothes pegs white, to stop the paint sticking the peg together you will need to open the pegs a few times whilst they are drying

- ❖ When the paint is dry, you can make the scarf, to do this you will need to cut a small piece of wool and wrap it around the peg. Tie the ends into a knot. Add a small amount of glue to secure

- ❖ With the marker, draw the eyes, mouth and buttons onto the snowman

- ❖ Add a drop of glue between the eyes and mouth and stick on the pom pom

- ❖ When the glue is dry, your snowman is complete
- ❖ You could use your snowman and a piece of wool to hang your Christmas cards
